RECESS

SENATOR MARSH PRESIDING

SENATOR MARSH: Good afternoon, it's time to reconvene. Please check in with your green button to indicate your presence. Senators, we would like to convene as soon as possible. Please indicate your presence in the Legislative Chamber. Senator Pappas, as soon as there is a quorum we'll be glad to start with 61. Sergeant-at-Arms, could you ascertain where some of the legislators are. Senators, we need your presence in the Legislative Chambers so that we can begin business for the afternoon. If four more of you would please honor us with your presence, we could begin work this afternoon. The Clerk will record.

CLERK: There is a quorum present, Mr. President.

SENATOR MARSH: Senator Pappas, we're now ready for LB 61.

CLERK: Madam President, if I might right before that, the bills read on Final Reading this morning have been presented to the Governor for his approval. (Re: LB 28, 33, 235, 265, 308, 335, 340, 373, 423, 424, 547, 568, 625, 94, 487.)

Madam President, also before I start on LB 71 (sic), Senator Smith would like unanimous consent to add her name as co-introducer.

SENATOR MARSH: If there is no objection, it shall be done.

CLERK: LB 61 offered by Senators Pappas and Smith. (Title read.) The bill was first read on January 10, referred to Public Health and Welfare for hearing. The bill was advanced to General File. There are Health and Welfare Committee amendments pending.

SENATOR MARSH: Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Madam Chairperson, members of the Legislature, these amendments attempt to clarify a couple of
